

Ethics

Please note that the first class January 20 will start at 1:20 instead of 1:00 p.m because of the Marx lecture. I hope all of you will attend that lecture.

We will use the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct in this course. Please pick up a free copy of these rules from Toni McGuire. For the first class, please look over the Table of Contents of the Rules so you can see the subjects covered, and read the Preamble: A Lawyer's Responsibilities.

Please read Chapters 1 and 2 in the Raymond text. And please write a paper of no more than 6 pages (shorter is fine) double spaced, 14 point font, addressing the following two issues.

- 1. What lawyer, real or fictional, do you most admire, and why?
- 2. Describe an ethics issue that you have seen or experienced at school or at work.

Please bring this paper to the first class, and be prepared to share your answers with the class. Although these papers will not be graded, they will be collected at the end of the class.
