NOTICE OF FILING

Pursuant to the request made by the Court at the October 20, 2004, hearing regarding the proposed Protective Order, respondents hereby provide notice of the filing (attached) of a protective order from the case, United States v. Moussaoui (E.D. Va.). At the October 20 hearing, undersigned counsel described the Moussaoui order as including a category of materials labeled “protected information,” providing an analogous precedent for the designation of information termed “protected information” in the proposed Protective Order in these cases. Counsel was mistaken, however, as to the use of the term “protected information” in the Moussaoui order. Nonetheless, consistent with the spirit of counsel’s comments at the hearing, the Moussaoui order permits the government in that case to designate categories of discovery materials, including a category labeled “particularly sensitive discovery materials,” subject to restrictions on use, dissemination, and filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Attorneys for Respondents
