COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The goal of this course is to introduce students to the work new lawyers practicing in the area of intellectual property are likely to encounter in private practice or in the corporate setting. This course will focus on many areas of intellectual property including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets and will include discussions and projects related to these IP topics. Some projects might include work on handling of confidential information, joint development issues, and due diligence reviews. This course may also address numerous other practical IP issues such as recognition of your client's IP rights, understanding how to protect those IP rights, and advising clients with respect to enforcement of IP rights.

SPECIAL NOTES:

This course meets on a special schedule on the following Wednesdays from 8:45 am to 10:30 am: 9-28, 10-5, 10-19, 10-26, 11-2, 11-9, 11-16, and 11-23.
