

DEBTOR AND CREDITOR LAW

Course Number:

Call Number:

Semester: Fall 2011

Professor: Slovin

Credits: 2 Classroom

Primary Basis for the Grade: Tentatively Exam and Class Participation; Letter Grade

Prerequisites: None

Enrollment: Open

Meets the Seminar Requirement? No

Meets the Writing Requirement? No

Meets Client Counseling Requirement? No

Meeting Times: T 3:05 – 5:05

Location: 208

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course examines the statutory and common law rights and duties of both debtors and creditors. Among the issues addressed are state law remedies for enforcing judgments, exemptions, and federal consumer laws governing credit and collections, and transferring judgments from one jurisdiction to another. The teaching methodology is a class discussion of current statutes and cases which govern debtor/creditor law.