

Required Classes for 2Ls

All second-year students must take Legal Ethics this spring.

There are four sections of this class scheduled. Although enrollment is capped for each section to facilitate class discussions, you need not fill out a lottery or other preference form for this class. In order to maximize your opportunity to get into the section most convenient for you, make sure you schedule this class early when registration opens.