NOTICE OF FILING

Plaintiffs-petitioners give notice that today they submitted under seal to the Court Security Officer their Supplement to Motion for Preliminary Injunction Regarding Defendants-Respondents' Denial of Koran with Commentary to Plaintiffs-Petitioners. In this filing, plaintiffs-petitioners supplement their motion for preliminary injunction and provisional motion to modify stay, wherein they asked the Court to enjoin the government from continuing to inflict irreparable injury upon them, pending final adjudication of their challenge to the conditions of their confinement, by ordering the government immediately to apply to plaintiffs-petitioners detained at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base all of the standards for the confinement of individuals held by the military as prescribed by U.S. Army Regulation 190-8 and the Military Policy Manual of Internment/Resettlement Operations. This supplemental information concerns a recent step taken by the government to suppress plaintiffs-petitioners' opportunities to practice their religion by refusing to permit their counsel to provide them with a Koran with commentary. Plaintiffs-petitioners reiterate their request that the Court grant a preliminary injunction to enjoin the government from denying them the opportunity to practice their religion while they are imprisoned without charge and to prevent the government from continuing to imprison them inhumanely pending final adjudication of their challenge to the living conditions at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Neil H. Koslowe
