

Betsy Lenhart
University of Cincinnati, College of Law
PO Box 210040
Cincinnati, Ohio 45221
513/556-0011
betsy.lenhart@uc.edu

Current Employment

Visiting Assistant Professor of Legal Research and Writing, University of Cincinnati College of Law

Education

JD – University of Cincinnati, 2004.

- Notes and Comments Editor of the Cincinnati Law Review; several academic awards, honors, and scholarships; Dean's list all semesters; participant in the volunteer tenant information, tax preparation, and community tutoring programs; research assistant for professors Ingrid Wuerth, Donna Nagy, and Rafael Gely; Legal Extern for Judge Sandra Beckwith, United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, September 2003 – April 2004.

ABD – History, Indiana University, 1996.

- Major field, Colonial Latin American History, minor field, Native American History.

MA – History, Indiana University, 1993. Major field, Colonial Latin American History.

BA – History and Political science, Miami University, 1987.

Professional Experience

Frost Brown Todd LLC, Cincinnati, Ohio; 2004 – present. Member of the Complex Business Litigation practice group; member of recruiting committee; member of women's initiative steering committee; member of women's professional development group; active participant in numerous pro bono representations; named to Ohio Super Lawyers Rising Stars 2009 for commercial litigation.

National Geographic Society, Book Division; Washington, DC. 2000 – 2001.

- Worked with authors and project managers on editing and research for travel and history books. Projects included books and/or chapters devoted to Alaska, Arizona, Utah, New Mexico, Virginia, and Maryland.

Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Cincinnati, Department of History; Cincinnati, Ohio.
1997 – 2000.

- Taught courses in Colonial Latin American history and Colonial United States history.

Associate Instructor, Indiana University, Department of History; Bloomington, Indiana.
1991 – 1995.

- Taught courses in Colonial United States history and 20th Century World history.