United States Court of Appeals

FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 05-5062

September Term, 2004

BEFORE: Sentelle, Randolph, and Rogers, Circuit Judges

ORDER

It is ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that a single, combined oral argument be held in Nos. 05-5062, et al., and 05-5064, et al. It is

FURTHER ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that the following format for oral argument apply:

Guantanamo Detainees – Argument is to be presented by one attorney from No. 05-5062, et al., and by one attorney from No. 05-5064, et al. Counsel are to confer to decide which issues each will argue and are cautioned to avoid duplicative argument.

The United States, et al. – Argument is to be presented by one attorney from No. 05-5062, et al., and by one attorney from No. 05-5064, et al. The government may elect to have a single attorney argue both cases.

The parties are directed to file, by August 5, 2005, a joint statement identifying the attorneys who will present oral argument; the parties they represent; which issues each attorney will present; in what order those issues will be presented; the amount of time requested for each issue; and for which issues, if any, they wish to rest on the written submissions. It is FURTHER ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that the government file, by August 2, 2005, a supplemental brief in No. 05-5062, et al., and a separate supplemental brief in No. 05-5064, et al., addressing the effect of this court's opinion in Hamdan v. Rumsfeld, No. 04-5393 (D.C. Cir. July 15, 2005); and that the detainees file, by August 9, 2005, responses to the government's supplemental briefs. The supplemental briefs and responses may not exceed 2,500 words each. The parties are directed to file and serve their pleadings by hand.
