COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This class concentrates on developing trial skills with a focus on representing the criminally accused. Beginning with developing the Theory of Defense, this class will expose students to all aspects of criminal defense trial work, including pre-trial motions, making and responding to objections, and each component of a criminal trial. The goal of the class is to provide an introduction to the zealous and effective representation of the criminal defendant.

SPECIAL NOTES:

THIS CLASS MEETS OFF-SITE.
