

PATENT OFFICE PRACTICE and PROCEDURE

Spring, 2011

Professor Steven J. Goldstein

Frost Brown Todd LLC – (513) 651-6131

sgoldstein@fbtlaw.com

Mondays – 3:15-6:00 p.m.

Room 100A

TEXT = Selected photocopied cases – available at bookstore

1. January 24 The three requirements of patentability—review of basic patent law
Text – pages 1-160 (and KSR decision)
 - utility, novelty, nonobviousness
 - 35 USC §§ 101, 102 and 103review and discussion of selected case law – placing basic patent law doctrines in a real world context

2. January 31 Drafting patentability opinions
Text – pages 161-222
 - invention disclosures, patentability searches
 - purposes of a patentability opinion
 - elements of a patentability opinion
 - attorney-client privilege/work product

3. February 7 Patentability opinion assignment due
Drafting patent claims-the theory-what are we trying to accomplish?
Text – pages 223-298
 - 35 USC 112, second paragraph
 - parts of a patent claim
 - review and discussions of selected case law—claim scope and construction
 - common pitfalls in claim drafting

4. February 14 Drafting patent claims—in practice
Text – pages 299-326
 - review and discussion of claims in issued patents
 - the claim drafting process
 - claim drafting exercises

PATENT OFFICE PRACTICE and PROCEDURE

5. February 21 Claim set assignment due
Drafting patent applications-what are we trying to accomplish?
Text – pages 327-328, 525-632, 633-674
 - 35 USC 112, first paragraph—enablement, description and best mode requirements (are description and enablement separate requirements?)
 - relevant portions of 37 CFR and the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP)
 - quid pro quo theory of patent protection
 - review and discussion of sample patents
 - inventorship
6. February 28 Drafting patent applications
Patent prosecution – overview
Text – pages 329-441, 470-524
 - practical aspects of patent application drafting
 - provisional applications
 - patent prosecution as a negotiation process
 - what is the goal?
 - effect of prosecution on patent term
7. March 7 Patent application assignment due
Patent prosecution – overview
Text – pages 675-858
 - review study and discussion of Patent Office file wrapper
 - information disclosure statements
 - Dayco case and related cases – citation of related applications, office actions and foreign prosecution
 - restriction practice—separate and distinct inventions
8. March 14 Patent prosecution – formal and novelty rejections
Text – pages 859-953
 - parts of a PTO official action
 - parts of an amendment/response—amending claims
 - review of types of PTO rejections
 - review and discussion of selected case law and selected portions of the MPEP
 - formal rejections—responding to formal rejections
 - novelty rejections—responding to novelty rejections
 - what is prior art?

PATENT OFFICE PRACTICE and PROCEDURE

9. March 21 NO CLASS – SPRING BREAK
10. March 28 Patent prosecution – obviousness rejections
Text – pages 954-1076
- review and discussion of selected case law (including KSR)
 - what is prima facie obviousness?
 - responding to obviousness rejections (with Festo in mind)
 - * using argument
 - * using data and “secondary considerations” (objective indicia) -
 - Rule 132 declarations
 - * swearing behind references—Rule 131 declarations
11. April 4 Amendment assignment due
Continuation practice
Text – pages 1077-1145
- relevant portions of 37 CFR and MPEP
 - continuation, continuation-in-part, and divisional applications
 - when used?
 - effective filing dates—35 USC 120
 - potential pitfalls
 - effect on patent term
 - double patenting
12. April 11 The final stages of prosecution
Text – pages 1146-1208
- relevant portions of 37 CFR and MPEP
 - examiner interviews
 - final rejections and amendments after final
 - advisory actions
 - allowances—notice of allowance-reasons for allowance
 - term extensions for USPTO delays
 - payment of the issue fee
 - post-issuance proceedings—reissue and reexamination (correction of issued patents)
13. April 18 Appeals
Text – pages 1209-1312
- Pre-appeal review
 - Notice of Appeal
 - appeal briefs—elements of an effective brief
 - oral arguments
 - appeals to the CAFC

PATENT OFFICE PRACTICE and PROCEDURE

14. April 25

Appeal brief assignment due

Ethical and Liability issues in patent prosecution

Basic international patent concepts

Text – pages 1313-1394, 1411-1438

- 37 CFR 1.56 and 1.98
- Rule 56—duty of disclosure (Therasense case)
- inequitable conduct
- ethical and liability issues – review common scenarios
- differences between US and international practice
- Paris Convention – priority dates
- Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT)
- international filing patterns – portfolio management