JOINT REQUEST TO POSTPONE STATUS CONFERENCE

Counsel for Respondents and Petitioners in the above-named cases respectfully request that the status conference in these cases currently scheduled for tomorrow, October 13, 2004, be postponed until Wednesday, October 20, 2004, and that a status report with respect to the Protective Order being negotiated by the parties be postponed until the day preceding the status conference.

Counsel for Respondents and Petitioners have made progress in narrowing their differences with respect to the Protective Order but have not yet completed their discussions.

Counsel also hope to narrow their other differences with respect to the proposed Counsel Access Procedures and other issues, including number and frequency of visits by counsel for Petitioners with their clients and issuance of security clearances to counsel for Petitioners. By narrowing their differences in advance of the status conference, the parties hope to leave the Court with as few issues for decision as possible.

In addition, a postponement of the status conference will permit government counsel to be in a better position to report the progress being made with respect to establishing the secure facility it has proposed for use by petitioner's counsel that is satisfactory to the Court and with respect to the government's filing of factual returns with respect to individual petitioner-detainees.

Undersigned counsel for the Abdah group of Petitioners (No. 1:04-cv-1254 (HHK)) has discussed this joint request in conference calls with counsel for Petitioners in the other pending cases. To the best of undersigned counsel's knowledge, no counsel for a Petitioner plans to object to this joint request.

A proposed order is attached.

Dated: October 12, 2004

Respectfully submitted,

Attorneys for Respondents

PETER D. KEISLER

Assistant Attorney General

KENNETH L. WAINSTEIN

United States Attorney

BRIAN D. BOYLE
